Our Story

Since Asian Human Services began helping Asian refugees more than 35 years ago, the organization has retained a single purpose: to positively transform lives among Chicago's immigrants, refugees, and other underserved communities.

Asian Human Services Family Health Center opened in 2001. The two-room space was staffed by a volunteer physician and a single nurse assistant. From these humble beginnings, the clinic has grown to become a Federally Qualified Health Center (FQHC) serving more than 9,000 patients.

Asian Human Services Family Health Center is your Patient Centered Medical Home (PCMH). We take a team approach to providing high-quality, comprehensive, cost-effective healthcare for your entire family. You have one place to call, giving you access to personalized care and a complete range of services.

We are dedicated to delivering a patient experience that is not only high-quality, but also personalized, coordinated, effective and efficient. Our focus on preventive care means better health and lower costs for our patients.
